

The Raising Nalanda - Policy Documents

Privacy Policy

At The Raising Nalanda, we value the privacy of our students, parents, and staff. Any personal information collected, whether during admission, website use, or communication, is kept secure and never shared without consent.

We use this data strictly to improve our services, track academic progress, and communicate important updates. We do not use cookies or tracking tools beyond essential website functionality.

Terms of Service

By using services offered by The Raising Nalanda, including our website and online learning platforms, users agree to:

1. Provide accurate information during admission and communication.
2. Respect school policies regarding attendance, discipline, and academic honesty.
3. Avoid misuse of online platforms or any form of disruptive behavior.

The school reserves the right to modify services and policies when necessary for academic improvement and safety.

Careers

The Raising Nalanda is constantly seeking passionate educators and mentors who are aligned with our mission: empowering underprivileged students with quality, concept-driven education.

We look for individuals with strong subject knowledge, commitment to social impact, and the ability to inspire children.

If you are interested in joining our mission, please send your resume and a statement of purpose to: careers@theraisingnalanda.org
